You are required to take this quiz before you start the course. To prepare, read the course instructions and the "submitting your assignments" document, watch the video on the how this course works page and review the suggested timeline.

Unit 1: Expressing Yourself

In this unit, you will review the basics of glossing, topic/comment structure, rhetorical questions, yes/no questions, and WH-questions—basically, all of ASL 1 in a single lesson. You'll also practice fingerspelling and learn more tips for improving your fingerspelling reception. After that warm-up, you'll learn more advanced vocabulary to talk about everyday subjects. You'll learn about comparatives and superlatives, and contrastive structure. You'll also get a basic linguistics lesson on how ASL signs are constructed.

Unit 2: What have you been up to?

In this unit you will learn classifiers and signs to describe large events. You will review and expand your ability to use inflection to show continued and repeated events. You will also learn vocabulary for agreeing and disagreeing, and the structure for forming conditional sentences. Finally, you will learn how to use signs you already know, such as HIT, WRONG, FINISH, FRUSTRATE, FIND as conjunctions.

Unit 2 Study Guide

This study guide will help you preview the concepts and guide your learning as each new skill or concept is introduced. Use this study guide as the foundation of your notes. You may use it on the unit quizzes, unit tests, and course final.

Unit 5: ASL Storytelling

You've already seen and studied a variety of stories and narratives in ASL throughout this course. In this unit, we will dive deeper into ASL folklore: different genres; why it is important to ASL and the Deaf community; how it capitalizes on the visual nature of ASL; and how it reflects the Deaf experience. First, we'll start with a study of how signs and classifiers are used in a variety of ways to show the eyes and everything they can do.

Final Exam

Once you have completed all of the unit tests and all of your assignments have been graded, the final exam will become visible.

Warnings: You have only ONE attempt at the final. Are you ready to take the final? We highly recommend you take the practice final first, and if you are weak in any area, review the relevant course material again. You have unlimited attempts at the practice final; it will help you to prepare.

Remember, if you want to improve your grade in this course, you need to do that BEFORE you take the final exam.

Good Luck!!

Reattempt up to 2 Unit Tests

Review your grade book and decide if you want to reattempt up to two unit tests BEFORE you take the Final. Once you complete the Final, the course is over, and this option will no longer be available.
